

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter aims to provide a conclusion based on the finding, discussion of the research in the previous chapter and suggestion for scout members, Kwartir Daerah Jambi, scout master, and also for English students.

5.1 Conclusion

There are three conclusions that the researcher derived from the finding of the data based on three research questions; What are the learning strategies used by scout members in Kwarda Jambi in developing their speaking abilities? Which learning strategies are the mostly used by scout members in Kwarda Jambi in developing their speaking abilities? And what are the reasons scout members in kwarda jambi used those mostly learning strategies in developing speaking abilities?

First based on the result finding of the questionnaire and interview, the scout members applied various strategies in developing their speaking ability as an effort to achieve the Eagle Scout in Kwarda Jambi. Those strategies are cognitive, compensation, metacognitive, memory, social, and affective strategy.

The most strategy that the scout members used was cognitive strategy. The average values of the strategy based on the questionnaire show that cognitive strategy has the highest mean score 3,66. Scout members used this strategy because this strategy can be learned by themselves, more exciting and enjoyable as the conclusion from the second and third research questions. The second mostly strategies used was compensation strategies as with total mean score 3,55, followed by affective strategy (mean 3,41), then metacognitive strategy (mean 3,40), which is higher than memory strategy (mean 3,39), and the last social strategy which has the lower mean score (2,53).
