

ABSTRAK

This study aims at investigating figurative languages used in the novel and what translation procedure used by translator to translated it into Indonesian language. The result of this study expect to be useful as a contribution for teaching English process in the English department of Jambi University, especially in the translation subject course.

Design of this study is descriptive qualitative research. Data of this study is Figurative Languages and the translation that found in the novel. Data will be collected using technical documentation. Data will be analyze using Identifying figurative languages found in the novel, rechecking that the data have been categorized into different types of figurative languages according to the theories, describing the aspects of figurative languages based on their categorization, Identifying the strategies used by the translator by examining any adaptations, changes, or shifts in the target text., describing the strategies and their consequences (shifts/changes/adaptations) in translation and summarizing the findings based on the analyzed data.