Title: Family Economic Education, Peer Group and Students' Entrepreneurial Intention: The Mediating Role of Economic Literacy

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr Suratno,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon.

We have completed the review of your manuscript and a summary is appended below. The reviewers recommend major revisions are required before publication can be considered.

If you are able to address all reviewer comments in full, I invite you to resubmit your manuscript. We ask that you respond to each reviewer comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism. This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here:

<https://www.cell.com/heliyon/guide-for-authors#Revisions>

To allow the editors and reviewers to easily assess your revised manuscript, we also ask that you upload a version of your manuscript highlighting any revisions made. You may wish to use Microsoft Word's Track Changes tool or, for LaTeX files, the latexdiff Perl script (<https://ctan.org/pkg/latexdiff>).

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder. Your revision due date is Apr 11, 2021.

We understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may well be causing disruption for you and your colleagues. If that is the case for you and it has an impact on your ability to make revisions to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please reach out to us.

I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Kind regards,

Tomayess Issa

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Editor's comments

- In the abstract, please discuss the following: what and why this study, how did you collect the data, discuss the new findings, limitations, and future research

- Major problem with the writing, please ask a professional editor to check the whole paper before the 2nd submission
- Assign a section to discuss; study research method; how did you collect the primary data, how did you select your participants, which platform did you use for the data collection, which tools did you use to distribute the online questionnaire
- Also discuss the study research questions? Also list the study hypotheses
- Can you justify if the sample size is sufficient or not based on the literature review?
- How did you create model 1? Further information is needed.
- Display the study hypotheses as a table and share with the readers, which one is accepted or rejected based on the data collection.

Reviewer #1: Methods: exposure and exploration unclear

Results: weak in argumentation and exploration

Interpretation: weak in argumentation and exploration

Other comments:

Reviewer #2: Methods: Detailed enough. You can mention all the reliability tests and their results in a table for better understanding. Corrections and recommendations were mentioned in the pdf.

Results: Should follow the format of Heliyon, Some portions of methodology should be placed on result section.

Interpretation: Looks good but writing style could be updated.

Other comments: I found almost 30% plagiarized in some sections (Introduction, Literature review and discussion); too many grammatical issues; use of synonymous words; problematic referencing; lack of citations for many statements. You must rewrite those sections after resolving the issues. I have marked most of them in the pdf for your convenience. Moreover, you should recommend some ways of further researches.

Reviewer #3: First and foremost I would like to congratulate the authors on this robust research. Entrepreneurship is a trending topic on our current economy and must be understood as a social phenomenon. The article is extensively described and pleasurable detailed.

Although grammatical pedantry is outside the scope of the reviewer, it is important that a grammatical readjustment and sentence construction to be carried out for greater clarity and fluidity as a whole.

The current text gives the feeling of a garbled speech and somewhat cacophonous or repetitive phrases, which still do not match the potential that the work presents.

At last, I recommend a minor revision before approval.

Reviewer #4: Methods: clear enough, common, variables and scales instrumentation criteria might be specified in a more detailed expression

Results: clear, however more detailed specifics with regard to main findings statement

Interpretation: Due to the nature of the findings, the argumentation could not be deepened. I suggest adding the interpretation of the in-depth interview data.

Other comments: the conclusion statements could be improved as well as explaining why it is important for pedagogical aspect, avoid repeating the results expressions.

Reviewer #5: Methods:

The methods section is not clear in terms of language.

Proofreading of the section is crucial.

Convenience sampling is not a probability sampling procedure. This must be corrected.

Use past tense in reporting the findings of the study. I noticed some present tense usage in this section.

There is rigor in the procedural steps in testing the validity of the instruments used for the data collection.

Generally, the paper needs to be proofread to improve the syntax and grammatical errors.

Results: The results have been satisfactorily presented.

Interpretation: The discussions of the are good with interesting dialogue between the author(s) and previous authors.

Other comments:

Introduction

1. The growing body of works of literature has focused on the impact of entrepreneurial education and entrepreneurial intention,
2. Numerous existing studies have focused on the connectivity between entrepreneurial intention, self-efficacy, entrepreneurial mindset, and intention.

These statements in the introductory section must be supported by literature references. It would be academic to cite many of these studies here to convince readers that you are current with the state-of-the-art in the field and that you are not making empty/unjustified claims or assumptions).

Literature

The literature section focuses on the three main constructs of the study. This is good as it offers a strong theoretical framework and context for the study.

Conclusion

What recommendations do you propose from the study that will impact on entrepreneurial training of the youth? Do well to task specific implementation actors and agencies for the sound recommendations you propose.

More importantly, any good research suggests areas for further studies. Based on your research, what areas of further studies can you suggest? This is very important looking at the cyclical nature of research.

Data in Brief (optional):

We invite you to convert your supplementary data (or a part of it) into an additional journal publication in Data in Brief, a multi-disciplinary open access journal. Data in Brief articles are a fantastic way to describe supplementary data and associated metadata, or full raw datasets deposited in an external repository, which are otherwise unnoticed. A Data in Brief article (which will be reviewed, formatted, indexed, and given a DOI) will make your data easier to find, reproduce, and cite.

You can submit to Data in Brief when you upload your revised manuscript. To do so, complete the template and follow the co-submission instructions found here: www.elsevier.com/dib-template. If your manuscript is accepted, your Data in Brief submission will automatically be transferred to Data in Brief for editorial review and publication.

Please note: an open access Article Publication Charge (APC) is payable by the author or research funder to cover the costs associated with publication in Data in Brief and ensure your data article is immediately and permanently free to access by all. For the current APC see: www.elsevier.com/journals/data-in-brief/2352-3409/open-access-journal

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Editor's comments

- 1- Please consider the following comments and the reviewers' comments before the final submission:
 - a. In a section 2 literature review, please introduce the section aims to the readers at least two to three lines
 - b. Still, you did not answer the question how you created a figure 1, which model did you adopt to create figure 1, please advise
 - c. Further information is needed regarding this approach: cross-sectional survey with a quantitative approach, please answer what and why? Please assign a section for the study research method.
 - d. Which platform did you use for the data collection, how did you distribute the study approach among the students, which tools did you use, and discuss the data collection duration?
 - e. Which version of SEM-PLS analysis
 - f. The source for the tables should be part of the table caption not below the table.
 - g. Your developed hypotheses, not questions, please change it in the discussion section, first line
 - h. Please generate a table before the conclusion to confirm which hypotheses are rejected or accepted
 - i. Still a major problem with the grammar and proofreading, your work should be checked by a professional editor, and submit the professional editor proof.

Reviewer #1: Methods: In the method, please explain the stages in the online questionnaire.

Results:Based on the research discussion, indicate your research position, especially in terms of novelty.

Interpretation: good

Other comments: literature review: no significant changes were made by the researcher; references, inconsistent writing

Reviewer #2: Methods: This study employed a convenience sampling that was largely applied in entrepreneurship studies (Cite)

Results:

Interpretation: Improved

Other comments: Language updated but I recommend a minor revision

Reviewer #3: Methods:

The methodology has been better described and allows for an accurate reconstruction of the project in another place/time.

Results:

The results are better presented, and allows for a more in-depth discussion, meanwhile some conclusions are still limited due to the very nature of the project.

Interpretation:

The authors recognize the quality of their data as well as their limitations, therefore drawing solid conclusion on their tested hypothesis.

Other comments:

The text has been revised and now provides more fluidity to the reading, allowing the phrases to better connect with each other

As said before, gramatical pedantry is beyond the work of a reviewer, as the editorial team is better qualified to said revisions. Nonetheless, there are a few things that keep repeating themselves along the text and some examples are listed below:

- 1 - On the phrase "Since the importance role of entrepreneurshipfor economic of a nation", it would be recommendable to change "given the important role of entrepreneurship to the economy of a nation"
- 2- Please correct the citation "McQuiggan& Megra, 2017)" by adding the lacking "("
- 3- on "This present study provides the following contributions"; kindly consider changing "This" to "The"
- 4- I suggest a reformulation on the phrase "Second, the focus study in Indonesia is unique as its high population and potential in university graduates of being entrepreneurs." As the meaning remains unclear
- 5- The phrases: "This means that economic learning cannot be limited to a special group of students, such as the workforce or for those who will become future government leaders alone, but universities must also equip students about economics and business (Hashim et al.,2013). Economic literacy is very important in all countries to prepare students for the changing world financial system(Jappelli, 2010).Students will need more understanding of economics to participate actively in a changing global economy (Walstad &Allgood, 1999)" are in a roundabout, repeating the same idea or barely complementing each other, it is recomendable to write the main idea as a single, objective phrase, and preserve the citations at the end.
- 6- The phrase: "First, aspects of economic knowledge and aspects of everyday economic attitudes or behavior are derivatives or descriptions and understanding of economics" can be reformulated to better transmit its idea
- 7 - In: "However, we have selected that the variables studied with a high degree of relevance"; "that" could be removed

I congratulate the authors on the improvement made.

A second or third look at the textual construction would be prudent.

Reviewer #4: Methods: Detail enough, some parts have been clearly modified

Results: Should follow the template of Heliyon in placing or organizing the tables and figures

Interpretation: The discussions of the are good

Other comments: The author's response is good enough and right on target of improvement

Reviewer #5: Methods:

Satisfactory now.

Results:

satisfactory now.

Interpretation:

satisfactory now.

Other comments: The author(s) have carefully responded to the review comments I suggested. The paper is now in a scholarly state for possible consideration for publication.

License of Publishing Rights

I hereby grant to Elsevier Ltd an exclusive publishing and distribution license in the manuscript identified above and any tables, illustrations or other material submitted for publication as part of the manuscript (the "Article") in print, electronic and all other media (whether now known or later developed), in any form, in all languages, throughout the world, for the full term of copyright, and the right to license others to do the same, effective when the Article is accepted for publication. This license includes the right to enforce the rights granted hereunder against third parties.

Supplemental Materials

"Supplemental Materials" shall mean materials published as a supplemental part of the Article, including but not limited to graphical, illustrative, video and audio material.

With respect to any Supplemental Materials that I submit, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Supplemental Materials, in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed) and permit others to do so. The publisher shall apply the same end user license to the Supplemental Materials as to the Article where it publishes the Supplemental Materials with the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis.

Research Data

"Research Data" shall mean the result of observations or experimentation that validate research findings and that are published separate to the Article, which can include but are not limited to raw data, processed data, software, algorithms, protocols, and methods.

With respect to any Research Data that I wish to make accessible on a site or through a service of Elsevier Ltd, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide, non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Research Data in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed), and to permit others to do so. Where I have selected a specific end user license under which the Research Data is to be made available on a site or through a service, the publisher shall apply that end user license to the Research Data on that site or service.

Scholarly Communication Rights

I understand that I retain the copyright in the Article and that no rights in patents, trademarks or other intellectual property rights are transferred to Elsevier Ltd. As the author of the Article, I understand that I shall have: (i) the same rights to reuse the Article as those allowed to third party users of the Article under the CC BY-NC-ND License, as well as (ii) the right to use the Article in a subsequent compilation of my works or to extend the Article to book length form, to include the Article in a thesis or dissertation, or otherwise to use or re-use portions or excerpts in other works, for both commercial and non-commercial purposes. Except for such uses, I understand that the license of publishing rights I have granted to Elsevier Ltd gives Elsevier Ltd the exclusive right to make or sub-license commercial use.

User Rights

The publisher will apply the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-NoDerivative Works 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND) to the Article where it publishes the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis. For further information, see <http://www.elsevier.com/about/open-access/open-access-options>.

The CC BY-NC-ND license allows users to copy and distribute the Article, provided this is not done for commercial purposes and further does not permit distribution of the Article if it is changed or edited in any way, and provided the user gives appropriate credit (with a link to the formal publication through the relevant DOI), provides a link to the license, and that the licensor is not represented as endorsing the use made of the work. The full details of the license are available at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0>.

Reversion of Rights

Articles may sometimes be accepted for publication but later rejected in the publication process, even in some cases after public posting in "Articles in Press" form, in which case all rights will revert to the author. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/article-withdrawal>.

Revisions and Addenda

I understand that no revisions, additional terms or addenda to this License Agreement can be accepted without Elsevier Ltd's express written consent. I understand that this License Agreement supersedes any previous agreements I have entered into with Elsevier Ltd in relation to the Article from the date hereof.

Copyright Notice

The publisher shall publish and distribute the Article with the appropriate copyright notice.

Author Representations / Ethics and Disclosure / Sanctions

I affirm the Author Representations noted below, and confirm that I have reviewed and complied with the relevant Instructions to Authors, Ethics in Publishing policy, Declarations of Interest disclosure and information for authors from countries affected by sanctions (Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea). Please note that some journals may require that all co-authors sign and submit Declarations of Interest disclosure forms. I am also aware of the publisher's policies with respect to retractions and withdrawal (<https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/article-withdrawal>).

For further information see the publishing ethics page at <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/publishing-ethics> and the journal home page. For further information on sanctions, see <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/trade-sanctions>

Author representations

- The Article I have submitted to the journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been previously published.
- The Article was not submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article and the Supplemental Materials do not infringe any copyright, violate any other intellectual property, privacy or other rights of any person or entity, or contain any libellous or other unlawful matter.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in the Article or the Supplemental Materials.
- Except as expressly set out in this License Agreement, the Article is not subject to any prior rights or licenses and, if my or any of my co-authors' institution has a policy that might restrict my ability to grant the rights required by this License Agreement (taking into account the Scholarly communication rights permitted hereunder), a written waiver of that policy has been obtained.
- If I and/or any of my co-authors reside in Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea, the Article has been prepared in a personal, academic or research capacity and not as an official representative or otherwise on behalf of the relevant government or institution.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher's policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/patient-consent> for further information.
- Any software contained in the Supplemental Materials is free from viruses, contaminants or worms.
- If the Article or any of the Supplemental Materials were prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country or state of Elsevier Ltd ("the Governing State"), without regard to conflict of law principles, and the parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Governing State.

For information on the publisher's copyright and access policies, please see <http://www.elsevier.com/copyright>.

I have read and agree to the terms of the License Agreement.

- The Article was not submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article and the Supplemental Materials do not infringe any copyright, violate any other intellectual property, privacy or other rights of any person or entity, or contain any libellous or other unlawful matter.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in the Article or the Supplemental Materials.
- Except as expressly set out in this License Agreement, the Article is not subject to any prior rights or licenses and, if my or any of my co-authors' institution has a policy that might restrict my ability to grant the rights required by this License Agreement (taking into account the Scholarly communication rights permitted hereunder), a written waiver of that policy has been obtained.
- If I and/or any of my co-authors reside in Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea, the Article has been prepared in a personal, academic or research capacity and not as an official representative or otherwise on behalf of the relevant government or institution.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher's policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/patient-consent> for further information.
- Any software contained in the Supplemental Materials is free from viruses, contaminants or worms.
- If the Article or any of the Supplemental Materials were prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country or state of Elsevier Ltd ("the Governing State"), without regard to conflict of law principles, and the parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Governing State.

For information on the publisher's copyright and access policies, please see <http://www.elsevier.com/copyright>.

I have read and agree to the terms of the License Agreement.

Terms and Conditions of Sale and Purchase

These Terms and Conditions of Sale and Purchase (“Terms”) set forth the terms and conditions governing the purchase of products and services from Elsevier B.V. and/or its affiliated Elsevier company Elsevier Ltd (“Elsevier”) through its web site at <https://authors.elsevier.com> (“Site”). By submitting an order for such products or services, you agree to be bound by these Purchase Terms.

Address

Elsevier B.V. Radarweg 29, 1043 NX Amsterdam, The Netherlands, registered at the Chamber of Commerce Amsterdam, nr. 33158992

Contract Formation

If you wish to purchase any of the products or services offered on this Site, you must submit a completed order form. You will be required to select your products, services or digital content for purchase and complete your delivery and payment details. Once these have been completed, you will have a further chance to check (and correct if necessary) these details prior to submission of your order, and you should print out this page and a copy of these Terms for your future reference.

If we accept your order, you will be sent a confirmation email giving you an order reference number (“Email Confirmation”). Once we have sent this E-mail Confirmation, you will not be able to amend or cancel your order (subject to any right to cancel as described below).

We may correct any error in any unconfirmed order, marketing literature or other document or information issued by us or placed on this Site without any liability.

Right to Cancel

Save as set out below, consumers in the European Union have the right to cancel the purchase until fourteen (14) days after date of delivery of the product or date the service was purchased by sending written notice of cancellation by email to the Site’s customer service department. A model cancellation form is available below for your use but you are not obliged to use this method of cancellation.

This right of cancellation applies to all products and services offered on the Site except:

(a) audio, video, and software products that have been unsealed from their packaging;

(b) digital content not on a tangible medium (e.g. eBooks) once the item has been downloaded;

(c) newspapers, periodicals and magazines which are not supplied under subscription contracts;

(d) services for which performance has completed; and

(e) offprints, colour figures, print on demand services and other products made or services provided to your specification or clearly bespoke to you.

If you cancel the purchase on this basis, we will reimburse to you all payments received from you, including the costs of delivery (except for the additional costs arising if you choose a type of delivery other than the least expensive type of standard delivery offered by us). We may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss in value of any goods supplied, if the loss is the result of unnecessary handling by you.

Returns

You must return the goods without undue delay and in any event no later than 14 days from the date of notification of cancellation. We will then make the reimbursement without undue delay, and no later than-

- (a) 14 days after the day we receive back from you any goods supplied, or
- (b) (if earlier) 14 days after the day you provide evidence that you have returned the goods, or
- (c) If there were no (physical) goods supplied, 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel the purchase.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement.

Whether these rights of cancellation apply or not, you will be responsible for and will pay the cost of returning the items to us by the same method as it was delivered. The items will be returned at your risk.

Prices (including taxes and delivery) and Payment

The currency and price of products and services offered on this Site shall be that quoted on the Site on the date you place your order. While we make every effort to ensure that prices quoted on the Site are accurate, if there has been an inadvertent error, the correct price will be stated in the E-mail Confirmation and you will have the opportunity to withdraw from the order at that stage if the correct price is higher than that quoted and you are not happy with that higher price.

All prices are exclusive of the cost of postage, packaging and delivery and any applicable Value Added Tax or other sales tax, which will be separately stated on the Site and/or the Email Confirmation.

If your order is for Gold Open Access publication of your article in a hybrid journal (that publishes both subscription and Gold Open Access content), you acknowledge that open access publication of your article is conditional on the timely payment of the article publication charge (APC) required by the journal. If the APC is not paid within the invoice deadline, we reserve the right to remove the Creative Commons license from the article, and to publish and distribute the article as we see fit, including offering the article for sale on a subscription basis. We will also require you to remove any copies of the article that you have posted on any online platform(s).

Delivery/Performance

Where applicable, products ordered will be delivered to the shipping address stated in your order, subject to any geographical restrictions stated on the Site. However, the time and method of delivery of products or performance of services will be at our discretion, unless otherwise specified and accepted as part of the order. Time for delivery or performance shall not be of the essence.

If the items delivered to you do not include all of the items that you ordered in any particular order or include incorrect items, you must inform us in writing as soon as possible. In any event, our liability is limited to the price of the items not delivered or the cost of replacing such items.

Consumer Protection

If you are a consumer, your statutory rights as a consumer are not affected by these Purchase Terms, and nothing in these Purchase Terms shall exclude or limit our liability arising by virtue of consumer protection legislation, or our liability for fraud or for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, or any other liability to the extent that we cannot so exclude or limit such liability as a matter of law.

License of Publishing Rights

I hereby grant to Elsevier Ltd an exclusive publishing and distribution license in the manuscript identified above and any tables, illustrations or other material submitted for publication as part of the manuscript (the "Article") in print, electronic and all other media (whether now known or later developed), in any form, in all languages, throughout the world, for the full term of copyright, and the right to license others to do the same, effective when the Article is accepted for publication. This license includes the right to enforce the rights granted hereunder against third parties.

Supplemental Materials

"Supplemental Materials" shall mean materials published as a supplemental part of the Article, including but not limited to graphical, illustrative, video and audio material.

With respect to any Supplemental Materials that I submit, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Supplemental Materials, in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed) and permit others to do so. The publisher shall apply the same end user license to the Supplemental Materials as to the Article where it publishes the Supplemental Materials with the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis.

Research Data

"Research Data" shall mean the result of observations or experimentation that validate research findings and that are published separate to the Article, which can include but are not limited to raw data, processed data, software, algorithms, protocols, and methods.

With respect to any Research Data that I wish to make accessible on a site or through a service of Elsevier Ltd, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide, non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Research Data in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed), and to permit others to do so. Where I have selected a specific end user license under which the Research Data is to be made available on a site or through a service, the publisher shall apply that end user license to the Research Data on that site or service.

Scholarly Communication Rights

I understand that I retain the copyright in the Article and that no rights in patents, trademarks or other intellectual property rights are transferred to Elsevier Ltd. As the author of the Article, I understand that I shall have: (i) the same rights to reuse the Article as those allowed to third party users of the Article under the CC BY-NC-ND License, as well as (ii) the right to use the Article in a subsequent compilation of my works or to extend the Article to book length form, to include the Article in a thesis or dissertation, or otherwise to use or re-use portions or excerpts in other works, for both commercial and non-commercial purposes. Except for such uses, I understand that the license of publishing rights I have granted to Elsevier Ltd gives Elsevier Ltd the exclusive right to make or sub-license commercial use.

User Rights

The publisher will apply the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-NoDerivative Works 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND) to the Article where it publishes the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis. For further information, see <http://www.elsevier.com/about/open-access/open-access-options>.

The CC BY-NC-ND license allows users to copy and distribute the Article, provided this is not done for commercial purposes and further does not permit distribution of the Article if it is changed or edited in any way, and provided the user gives appropriate credit (with a link to the formal publication through the relevant DOI), provides a link to the license, and that the licensor is not represented as endorsing the use made of the work. The full details of the license are available at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0>.

Reversion of Rights

Articles may sometimes be accepted for publication but later rejected in the publication process, even in some cases after public posting in "Articles in Press" form, in which case all rights will revert to the author. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/article-withdrawal>.

Revisions and Addenda

I understand that no revisions, additional terms or addenda to this License Agreement can be accepted without Elsevier Ltd's express written consent. I understand that this License Agreement supersedes any previous agreements I have entered into with Elsevier Ltd in relation to the Article from the date hereof.

Copyright Notice

The publisher shall publish and distribute the Article with the appropriate copyright notice.

Author Representations / Ethics and Disclosure / Sanctions

I affirm the Author Representations noted below, and confirm that I have reviewed and complied with the relevant Instructions to Authors, Ethics in Publishing policy, Declarations of Interest disclosure and information for authors from countries affected by sanctions (Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea). Please note that some journals may require that all co-authors sign and submit Declarations of Interest disclosure forms. I am also aware of the publisher's policies with respect to retractions and withdrawal (<https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/article-withdrawal>).

For further information see the publishing ethics page at <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/publishing-ethics> and the journal home page. For further information on sanctions, see <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/trade-sanctions>

- The Article I have submitted to the journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been previously published.
- The Article was not submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article and the Supplemental Materials do not infringe any copyright, violate any other intellectual property, privacy or other rights of any person or entity, or contain any libellous or other unlawful matter.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in the Article or the Supplemental Materials.
- Except as expressly set out in this License Agreement, the Article is not subject to any prior rights or licenses and, if my or any of my co-authors' institution has a policy that might restrict my ability to grant the rights required by this License Agreement (taking into account the Scholarly communication rights permitted hereunder), a written waiver of that policy has been obtained.
- If I and/or any of my co-authors reside in Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea, the Article has been prepared in a personal, academic or research capacity and not as an official representative or otherwise on behalf of the relevant government or institution.

- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher's policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/patient-consent> for further information.
- Any software contained in the Supplemental Materials is free from viruses, contaminants or worms.
- If the Article or any of the Supplemental Materials were prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country or state of Elsevier Ltd ("the Governing State"), without regard to conflict of law principles, and the parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Governing State.

For information on the publisher's copyright and access policies, please see <http://www.elsevier.com/copyright>.

I have read and agree to the terms of the License Agreement.
