

ABSTRACT

This study discusses the Strategy of Economic Empowerment of Islamic Boarding Schools Towards Economic Independence in an Islamic Economic Perspective. As'ad Islamic Boarding School has 10 business units, the establishment of business units to support the empowerment and development of the Cottage. This study aims to find out how the implementation of economic empowerment of As'ad Islamic Boarding School Jambi City and how the economic empowerment strategy through the As'ad Islamic Boarding School business unit in Jambi City. The type of data used in this study is in the form of primary data by conducting interviews with several resource persons such as najla mothers, istiqomah mothers, students and female students as well as business unit subdivisions. The results showed that Pondok As'ad has implemented economic empowerment through the development of business units to support the empowerment and development of Pondok As'ad, As'ad Islamic Boarding School also implements the EMAS (As'ad Prosperous Advanced Economy) economic empowerment strategy with the application of economy from, by, for As'ad Islamic Boarding School with meeting the needs of students, the business is run very well with business unit managers and internal strengthening and beneficial impact on the surrounding community.

Keywords: Pesantren Economic Empowerment, Economic Empowerment Strategy, Cottage Business Unit, Islamic Boarding School