

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter draws conclusion and suggestion about students' attitude toward learning English as a foreign language at one of Pondok Pesantren in Jambi.

5.1 Conclusion

After collecting the data and finishing the research, the researcher concludes that for the attitudes, the students will do the positive attitude toward the English learning such as do the homework from teacher, try to find some ways to solve their difficulties or weakness.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the result of this research which is found that students' attitudes toward learning English as a foreign language at one of Pondok Pesantren in Jambi, so it is suggested to the teacher perhaps the teacher can make the students to have another positive attitudes about learning English in order to increase their English score at school. Then, for other research, perhaps the research can conduct about this topic with different limitation, such as larger participants, different site, and more interview questions.