

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

1.1 Conclusions

In this paper, the writer analyzes the moral values contained in the movie entitled, “Front of the Class” directed by Peter Werner. After watching the movie, the writer comes up with some conclusions, such as written down in the passages below.

The intrinsic elements of Front of the Class movie, the researcher found that there are five basic components of plot in the movie. They are Exposition, Conflict, Climax, Falling Action, and Resolution. The Character in Front of the Class movie are; Major Character and Minor Character. Major Character are: Brad Cohen; he is describe as a person that suffering from Tourette Syndrome that made him being ridiculed. Ellen; she is Brad mother’s who loving and caring to Brad. Norman; Brad father he is loving and caring Brad and his Brother even he get divorced with brad mother. Minor Character are: Jeff; Brad’s Brother, Ron; Brad’s house mate, Dianne; Brad’s step mother, Principke Myer; Brad’s head master and Brad’s inspiration to be a teacher, Jib Obvey and Hilarie; Principle and teacher in Mountain View Elementary School, and the last one is Nancy; Brad’s Girlfriend.

There are two setting that researcher analyze. They are Setting place and setting time. The setting place in this movie are Library, Baseball Field, Psychiatrist’s Place, Ellen’s Boutique, Ellen’s House, Brad’s Apartment, Brad’s Elementary School, Mountain View Elementary School and The Georgia Stage hall. The setting time in this movie was taken is about the earliest of 1990’s when Brad cohen was 12 years old.

The dialogue in this movie, the character used their social environment as well as their characterization. Musical performance in this movie both instrument and song will support the atmosphere, in this movie show how very professional the music director is. And the visual elements like costume of the characters and vehicle used are chosen correctly.

Moral value. It related to skill to decide both right and wrong behaviours accepted by citizen. Morality contains belief about the nature of man, belief about ideals, what is good or desirable for its own sake, rules laying down what ought to be done, and motives that incline us to choose the right or the wrong course. There are some kinds of moral value found in the Front of the Class movie, such as high self-confident, persistent, independent, patient, optimist and courageous, and also humble. These values are presented through some dialogues among the characters and monologues by mayor character, Bradley Cohen.

5.1 Suggestions

The writer would like to give some suggestions related to the movie "Front of The Class" directed by Peter Werner that probably useful for everyone who will study or do the research.

However, watching movie that contains of moral values is more meaningful and useful to have us get new insights about the values conveyed in it, than those kinds of movie that full of crime, horror, and jokes that sometimes just waste our attention and time.

So, the last but not least, the writer only could give conclusion: please, watch movies that could educate its audience's moral and behavior than other movies that only waste the audience's time.
