

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents to conclusion of this research base on the finding and the discussion in the previous chapter. The suggestions of this study are also presented briefly which is addressed for “perkembangan peserta didik” lecturers for English education students and further research in related topic.

5.1 Conclusion

In this research, the researcher investigated the student needs in learning “perkembangan peserta didik” course of English education students at Jambi University. Based on the findings and discussion that have been presented, the researcher can conclude that the English education students of Jambi University find the student refers if the methods that match for English students in learning “perkembangan peserta didik” is lecturing method in Indonesian and English.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the findings and discussions of this researcher proposed some suggestion for the readers as follows:

1. For “perkembangan peserta didik” lecturer

“perkembangan peserta didik” lecturer at Jambi university especially English education major, must provide ther students with lecturing method with Indonesian and Engglish method in teach them

2. For the student

The students are expected to learn “perkembangan peserta didik” course that relevan to ther needs, especially ther majors. So that can help students increase their motivation in learning “Perkembangan Peserta Didik” to achieve their learning goals.

3. For other researchers

Future researchers are expected to conduct future research related to the topic with a various analyze and various ideas such us conducting development research to continue existing research.