5.3 Suggestions

The researcher provides some recommendations for some parties. The recommendations are for the teacher, and the students

1. For the teacher, the teacher need to give more attention to the students' difficulties in learning every student has their own difficulties. It is better to give them detail feedback and comments from their works. They also need to be given more appreciation so they will be motivated in doing their projects.
2. For the students, they should have strong motivation to learn, and be active to ask the teacher in the classroom. The students should use English most of the time in their class because the background of their study are English.
